Further to my letter 3rd July, I had a meeting today with a representative from HS2.

Again, I am sorry that I am unable to attend your meeting of the Woore Parish Council on 10th July due to parliamentary business.

I suggested that we have another meeting with Woore Parish Council and local residents with HS2 representatives in mid-August, so that they can come back and reply to all the questions that you put to them on Monday.

I also plan to meet the Parliamentary Under Secretary of State for Rail, Accessibility and HS2, Paul Maynard, to update him on my constituents' concerns.

In the meantime, I have forwarded copies of my constituents' letters to the Chairman of HS2 to ask for his comments. As previously suggested, I welcome correspondence from you and my constituents. I look forward to hearing about the meeting on 10th July and meeting you in mid-August.

Yours sincerely,
